MICHAEL MINDEN & THERESA
MINDEN,

Plaintiffs,

v.

ALLSTATE PROPERTY AND CASUALTY
INSURANCE COMPANY, an Illinois
Corporation; DOE INDIVIDUALS 1-10 and ROE ENTITIES I-X,

Defendants.

Case No. 2:21-cv-00151-APG-BNW

STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

This Stipulation is entered into by and between Plaintiffs Michael Minden and Theresa Minden, and Defendant Allstate Property Casualty Insurance Company (referred to collectively as the "Parties"), by and through their attorneys of record, based on the following:

The Parties assert that certain documentation and information sought constitutes confidential, proprietary, sensitive, trade secret, financial, business, and other commercial records and information entitled to protection from disclosure;

The Parties desire to establish a mechanism to prevent the improper disclosure of such information and documentation produced;

1 The Parties desire the procedures outlined in this Order shall apply to all documents, things
 2 and information subject to discovery from or disclosed by the Parties pursuant to the Federal Rules
 3 of Civil Procedure, including without limitation: Allstate's claim handling policies and procedures,
 4 training documents, and claim manuals.

5 The Parties intend that this stipulation be binding upon them and enforceable as an Order of 6 the Court. The Parties seek the Court's approval and entry of the terms of this stipulation as an 7 Order of the Court.

8 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

9 I. (1) The parties hereto recognize that some of the information, documents, and 10 the things that may be disclosed or may be discoverable under the Rules of Civil Procedure in this
 11 action might allegedly include trade secret or other confidential information or proprietary business
 12 or commercial information of the party from which discovery is sought ("Confidential
 13 Information"), the public disclosure of which would likely be competitively harmful. To the extent
 14 the parties produce documents and/or other things allegedly containing Confidential Information
 15 which the producing party determines warrants protection, those documents shall be subject to this 16 Stipulated Protective Order Regarding Confidentiality.

17 (2) The parties hereto agree that limitations on the disclosure and use of 18 Confidential Information are desirable for the orderly conduct of discovery in this action, while at 19 the same time providing protection from the misuse of each party's Confidential Information.

20 (3) Each party to this action who produces or discloses any documents, things,
 21 interrogatory answers, admissions, deposition transcripts, or information which the producing or
 22 disclosing party ("Producing Party") reasonably believes to comprise or contain Confidential
 23 Information, and which the Producing Party desires to be subject to this Protective Order, shall have 24 stamped or written upon that document or tangible thing one of the two following designations as 25 reasonably determined by the Producing Party:

26 (a) "CONFIDENTIAL", or

27 (b) "CONFIDENTIAL ATTORNEY'S EYES ONLY"

28 All documents and tangible items so marked as provided in Paragraph I(3) must be visibly marked on each page or separate item by the Producing Party as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL ATTORNEY’S EYES ONLY.” A deposition transcript may be designated “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL ATTORNEY’S EYES ONLY” by any party or witness by requesting such treatment thereof either (1) on the record, or (2) by written communication mailed within thirty (30) days after receipt by the witness or his or her counsel of the transcript. All parties shall treat a deposition transcript as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL ATTORNEY’S EYES ONLY,” respectively, during said thirty (30) day period. If “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL ATTORNEY’S EYES ONLY” treatment of a transcript is requested on the record, the court reporter shall be instructed to mark the face of the transcript(s) containing the designated testimony with the designation “CONFIDENTIAL” and/or “CONFIDENTIAL ATTORNEY’S EYES ONLY.” Copies of all exhibits designated “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL ATTORNEY’S EYES ONLY” shall be separately marked accordingly. If the designated transcript portions are filed with the Court, the designated portion shall at the time of filing be sealed as provided in Paragraph VIII below and within the sealed envelope, identified as being “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL ATTORNEY’S EYES ONLY.”

II. (1) All documents and tangible things marked as CONFIDENTIAL or CONFIDENTIAL ATTORNEY’S EYES ONLY shall be held by the Party receiving same (the “Receiving Party”) in confidence and used solely for the purpose of this case. Counsel of record for the parties may maintain a copy of the Confidential Information for document retention purposes as well as their own documents that are work product or subject to attorney-client privilege. This Order shall continue to apply to information designated as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL ATTORNEY’S EYES ONLY” following the conclusion of this matter.

(2) All information designated “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL ATTORNEY’S EYES ONLY” disclosed or produced in the course of this litigation shall be used for purposes in the action Minden v. Allstate Property and Casualty Insurance Co., Case No. 2:21-cv-00151-APG-BNW, and shall not be disclosed except in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

(3) All information designated “CONFIDENTIAL ATTORNEY’S EYES ONLY” shall be subject to the following additional restriction: It shall be held in confidence by counsel of record for the Receiving Party, experts, and consultants who execute the Undertaking attached hereto as Exhibit “A” and shall not be disclosed by said counsel to their respective clients or to anyone else, including (but not by way of limitation) any officers, directors, in-house counsel, general counsel, managing agents and/or employees of the Receiving Party, consultants retained by same, or employees of such consultants.

(4) All information designated “CONFIDENTIAL” shall be subject to the same restrictions as set forth in Paragraph II (3) above, except that such information may be disclosed by counsel of record to a named party, if that party is an individual, or to no more than three Directors, Officers, or employee representatives of a party if that party is a corporation.

IV. It shall be the responsibility of each party to this Order to advise all persons, including counsel of record and expert(s), shown or given any designated information, of this Order, and they shall be bound thereby. Furthermore, (with the exception of counsel of record, attorneys within the law firms of such counsel, and secretaries and paralegals of counsel of record and the court and court personnel) all persons authorized herein who are shown or given any designated information shall first sign an undertaking in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A.

V. This Order by itself shall not expand nor limit the rights of any party, during the course of discovery, either (1) to demand additional information on any ground, or (2) to object or withhold additional information or documentation. Nor, conversely, shall this Order limit the right of any party to move the Court to compel the production of any such evidence on any ground. Subject to the Producing Party seeking relief from the Court as provided in paragraph VII below, this Order shall not inhibit the dissemination or use of any Confidential Information if that same information has been or is obtained by the Receiving Party from sources other than, and independent from, the Producing Party, under circumstances that place no restriction on the use or disclosure of the information by the Receiving Party. Nothing in this Order by itself or in any Party’s compliance with its provisions shall be construed to preclude a Party from seeking and obtaining Confidential Information or other information by discovery request or judicial request or other judicial process

1 in this or any other action.

2 VI. In the event any Confidential Information is used in any proceeding herein, it shall
3 not lose its designated status through such use, and the parties shall take all steps reasonably required
4 to protect such confidentiality against misuse. Neither the taking of any action in accordance with 5 the provisions of this Protective Order, nor the failure to object thereto, shall be construed as a
6 waiver of any claim or defense in this action. Except as expressly provided herein, the entry of this
7 Order shall not be construed as a waiver of any right to object to the furnishing of information in 8 response to discovery and conversely, except as expressly provided herein, by itself shall not relieve 9 any party of the obligation of producing discoverable information in the course of discovery.

10 VII. Maintenance of the protected status of any Confidential Information shall in all cases
11 be subject to further order of this Court and nothing herein shall preclude any party upon reasonable
12 notice to all parties from applying to this Court for any modification of this Order or moving the 13 Court for an order changing the status of any designated information or otherwise relieving the 14 Receiving Party from the restrictions contained in this Protective Order or from applying to the 15 Court for further or additional Protective Orders. In such a motion, the party designating or seeking 16 to restrict the use or distribution of any information or discovery material shall bear the burden of 17 persuasion. The designating party has the burden of proving that designated materials are 18 confidential; if a party challenges a designation in good faith and the parties are unable to resolve
19 the dispute, the designating party shall file a motion for protective order. The designations under 20 Paragraph I(3) shall be made by the parties hereto reasonably and in good faith.

21 VIII. (1) Any documents containing Confidential Information that are filed with the 22 Court for any purpose shall be submitted with a request to file under seal pursuant to appropriate
23 rules, and shall be placed in a sealed envelope or container marked on the outside with the title of 24 the action and with a statement substantially in the following form:

25 “CONFIDENTIAL - SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER”

26 This envelope (or container) containing the above-identified papers filed by (name of party)
27 is not to be opened nor the contents thereof displayed or revealed to anyone other than Court
28 personnel, except by further Court Order.

(2) This Order shall not govern the use of Confidential Information at trial.

IX. The Parties and any other person subject to the terms of this Order agree that this Court shall have and shall retain jurisdiction over it and over them during and for 6 months after this action is terminated, for the purpose of enforcing this Order.

X. The Parties to this agreement may change its terms or effects by further mutual agreement in writing, as approved by the Court.
